Forever Among the Stars

Those we love don't go away.
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed, and very dear.

Born in Hamburg, 1944,
Moved to Australia at ten,
With adventures galore.

In June, he met Elaine,
And their love did grow,
With three lovely children,
Their joy did overflow.

Words can't wipe away the tears,
Hugs won't ease the pain.
But hold onto your memories,
Forever they'll remain.

Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Tommy's spirit stays, forever dear.
He lives on, forever in our hearts.
